Around the Square

Honest boys keep turning up all the time—John Sheehy, 10, of 189 East Montecito turned in to police a wallet he found containing $2.91 in cash and other papers.

But look, fellas—the keys taken from the Sierra Madre Theatre in the money bag (no money) fit only various locks INSIDE the theatre, and can't be used to get into the buildings at all. So why not leave 'em back at the theatre—they won't do you any good, any more than taking them did you any good.

The Canyon Plunge is bigger business this year than last, Recreation Commission Chairman Al Morgan reported. Attendance has been very good, no doubt due to the new two-toned paint job and the general clean-up and paint-up of the whole grounds. "It really looks like a decent municipal pool now," said the Recreation Commissioner.

Al Morgan seems to have become the most news-making man in town. With all his civic duties he really gets around. A communication to the NEWS this week said that it had become a sort of a game for the kids in some families to rush out and get the paper to see if Morgan's picture were in again. So, to oblige, we use it again. We also suggest to the NEWS editor that cut of a profile picture of Morgan be made—just for variety.

A big nuisance to the Police department over the Fourth of July holiday was the cap pistol problem. All the week before the fourth, came calls asking whether the things were permitted alternated with calls complaining about the noise and nuisance. One woman caller said she could no longer stand the "little bullets."

The rigors of modern living are bad enough—but consider the rigors of moving. When the Alfred Dewey Jr. family moved from Chino last week to 250 West Highland, they toted three children, six skunks, one hamster, one trailer and one airplane.

The Woman's Club and Masonic Temple officials who have been assigned to appear before the Board of Supervisors this month for assessment equalization will be in for a shock. The "routine" assessment cut, usually given such groups on their buildings, probably won't be forthcoming.

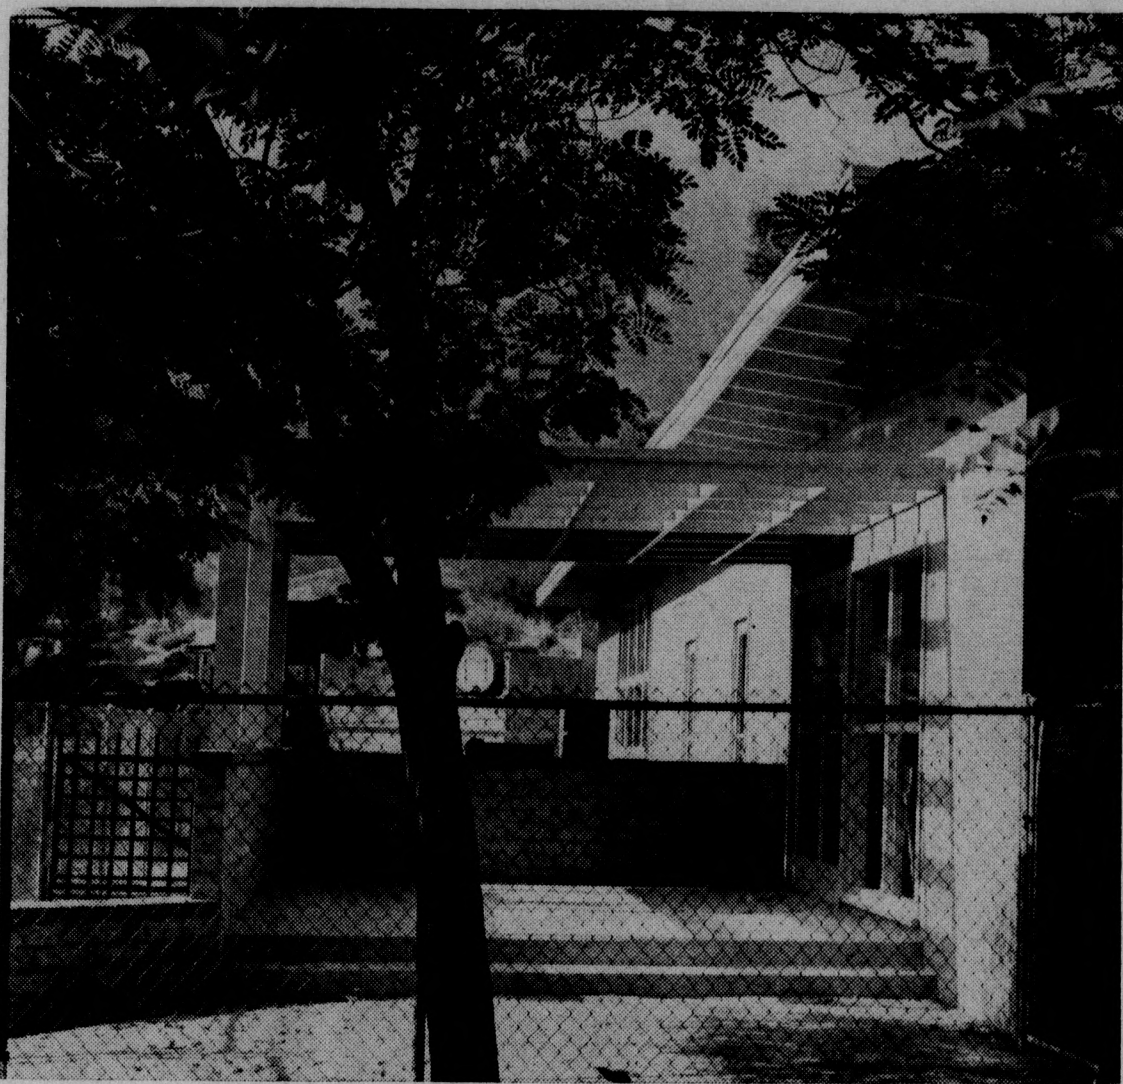

We suggest that they "build a case" for assessment reduction on the basis of their building's single purpose use. Otherwise they will have to dig a little deeper into their treasures next year to pay taxes.

The change of policy for these non-profit organizations is not to the supervisors' liking. But they found that it was forced upon them by the law.

We were glad to see that Sierra Madre was not one of the L. A. County cities where the price of a haircut is going to $1.25 from the present $1. If it does, then we will ask the C. of C. to get a new industry in town—a barber's college so we can get back to the good old two-bit hair cut.

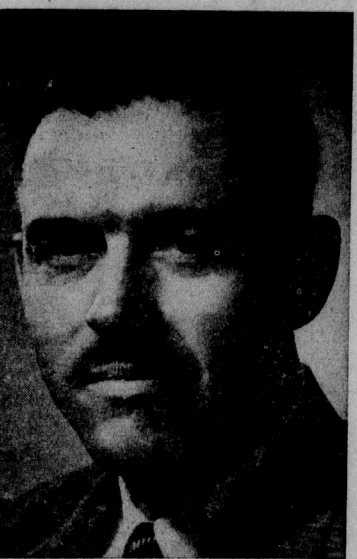

The job of police officers in Sierra Madre is anything but dull at times. Officer Ralph Twedell agrees with that after running a prematurely born baby to the hospital yesterday morning. Police officers were called after the baby had arrived at about 4:30 a. m.

Nursery School Dedication Sunday

THE BUILDING OF THE SIERRA MADRE Community Nursery School, recently completed after active fund and help raising drive, will be dedicated to the community next Sunday in public program. An afternoon open house for all visitors will be held and dedication will be made and accepted by Nursery School and City officials. The building is at 701 East Sierra Madre boulevard and the dedication program is open to all.

Formal dedication of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School's new building at 701

MAYOR Wm. A. KINNEY

E. Sierra Madre boulevard will be held next Sunday afternoon.

City-wide open house and a program from 3 to 5 will mark the dedication of the building to the city. Harold Bartel, 1950 president of the Association, and George Parr, president in 1949 when the building was started, will be spokesmen for the Nursery School group in dedicating the building to the community.

Accepting the building for the city and speaking briefly on the value of the school and the new building to the community will be Mayor William A. Kinney and former Mayor J. M. Steinberger, during whose term in office the lease was signed with the city for the erection of the building on city-owned land just inside the city limits on East Sierra Ma-

Day Camp Plans
For Summer

The recreation commission met last night to formulate definite plans for Sierra Madre's second annual summer Day Camp program.

The Day Camp program will again be made available free to all elementary school children who have finished the first grade. It is planned and carried out through the cooperation of the Sierra Madre recreation commission and the City School.

The camp last year ran from mid-July till early in August and dates this year will approximate last year's. Activities are held at the Youth Hut grounds on Sierra Madre boulevard. The camp is open daily from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Many changes and improvements will be made in this year's program, according to Charles Skutt, Schools Superintendent. Carefully organized and supervised outdoor play and instruction in crafts work again will be part of the activity. Children will be divided into groups according to age and each classification will have a definite project to work toward during the session.

Active games and sports will be alternated with quiet games and crafts during the day. Supervised swimming may be included. Each Friday evening of last year's program was devoted to a campfire night for all the families of the day campers, and this may be included again this year.

Definite dates and plans for the program will be announced within a week, the committee said.

Traffic
Court
Happenings

In Judge Mead's traffic court last Saturday, Alfred H. Richter, 39 Victoria Lane, forfeited bail of $10 by non-appearance. He had been cited for failure to give right-of-way to a pedestrian in a crosswalk.

Gregory Joseph Shifano of 51 East Foothill avenue, Arcadia, paid a $5 fine for failure to observe a stop sign and cutting a corner, Jack Langdon, 1025 Beacon street, Los Angeles, was fined $5 for parking in a crosswalk. Three other small bills were forfeited by non-appearance.

NOTICE!
Capt. Sanford Ullman announces that no excuses whatsoever will be accepted for absence from drill of the Sierra Madre National Guard Unit. He also stated that there are a few openings left for new recruits.

State Must
OK Baldwin
Repairs

Advertisement for bids for the street repairs for Baldwin avenue cannot be set in motion until the contract is approved by the State, City Streets Superintendent Harry Shatto said this week.

"It will be possibly or probably the first of August or later," Mr. Shatto said.

A resolution calling for bids for the resurfacing of Baldwin avenue from Orange Grove to Highland was adopted at the last City Council meeting, when the Council also moved to ask the State and the County to approve expenditures to repair several other city streets.

New Owner
Takes Over
Paint Shop

H. C. Hatfield has leased Clark's Paint and Body Shop at 15 North Auburn. Mr. Hatfield has been in the automobile repair business in Monrovia and Arcadia for several years.

The firm will be known as the Sierra Madre Paint and Body Shop. Mr. Hatfield will become a resident of this city as soon as he finds suitable living quarters.

Sierra Madre
In Auto Fees

An allocation of $16,235.64 in motor vehicle license fee funds to Sierra Madre was announced this week by State Controller Thomas Kuchel. This is Sierra Madre's share of a allocation of $11,178,725.02 for the city and county of Los Angeles.

Kuchel said the total amount of license fees also known as the "in lieu tax" allocated throughout the state was $33,602,711.

Allocations to other nearby cities included: Arcadia, $52,543.68; Monrovia, $43,979.13; Pasadena, $258,708.80.

Lt. Shippey
Believed Off
For Korea

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shippey are very sure that their son, Lt. John Shippey of the Air Force has already gone to the Korean theatre.

Knowing that the B-29 base where he has been stationed had been alerted, and no word from Lt. Shippey adds up to departure. Lt. Shippey took part in Airlift to Berlin, flying a B-29.

Local Postal Receipts
Advance

A big jump again in postal receipts for the second quarter of the year was reported by Postmaster Eddie Robertson.

For April, May and June of 1950, the receipts soared to $22,333.20, an increase of 52.5 per cent over receipts for the same period of last year when the total was $14,595.92. The increase for this year is $7,737.28.

Cancellations jumped for this quarter to 885,903, as compared to 350,762 for the same quarter of 1949. This represents an increase of 152.5 per cent.

New appointments for the lobby of the Post Office and new boxes have been received, Robertson said. The new equipment is being unpacked and will be installed very shortly.

S. M. Annals Nearing Publication

The Sierra Madre Historical Society needs only about 70 more paid subscriptions in order to publish now the "Annals of Sierra Madre," a valuable history of the early city.

The out-of-town response to the proposed publication has been excellent and the response that has been received in Sierra Madre has been enthusiastic, according to Edna Hewitt, publication secretary. But the last few dollars are holding up the immediate publication.

Many of the facts and stories in the proposed book will never again be available to everyone, since most of the chapters were written by the pioneers of the city. The "Annals" will be the only published record of the early home-stead and settling of Sierra Madre, the early families and homes, the early water arguments, the first months of incorporation when Sierra Madre became a city, the story of Mount Wilson and the building of the Mount Wilson Trail, the lives of the people who really built the early Sierra Madre into a city.

If the last few subscriptions come in immediately, Mrs. Hewitt said, the book can and will be published within six weeks. If not, the subscriptions already received may have to be returned, since commitments have been made on the date of publication.

Business Face-Lifting and Parking Problem Discussed
By Sierra Madre MerchantsSCHOOL BOARD
ELECTS 1950
OFFICIALS

E. Waldo Ward was re-elected President of the Sierra Madre School Board Monday night, in a legally required organizational meeting at the school.

Howell N. White Jr. succeeds Mrs. Edith Dane as Clerk. According to School Superintendent Charles A. Skutt, the leaders' official positions became effective July 1 of this year.

A step toward solution of some of the problems of Sierra Madre's business area was taken this week as nearly 30 local merchants met under the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce.

It was generally agreed that three things must be done to brighten the city's business outlook:

1. Give the downtown district a face lifting.
2. Provide parking for shoppers.
3. Closer cooperation among merchants in providing service for Sierra Madreans and a cooperative advertising plan to sell this service to residents here.

Chamber President Al E. Morgan, who opened last Friday's meeting, said that a second meeting would be held at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

Lloyd Howard, owner of Howard's Furniture store, conducted the meeting. He paid tribute to Felix Gibian who has helped coordinate the work of the merchants' committee.

"It's now a question of pulling together," Howard said. Francis Danielson, owner of Danielson's Radio and Paint Company, urged cooperative advertising. He declared that "all the merchants must work together."

At the conclusion of the meeting, Howard said: "I would like the Chamber of Commerce to enlarge this committee with this group as a guidance committee. Let us think this over and come out with some action."

All those present voted for forming the committee and holding additional meetings.

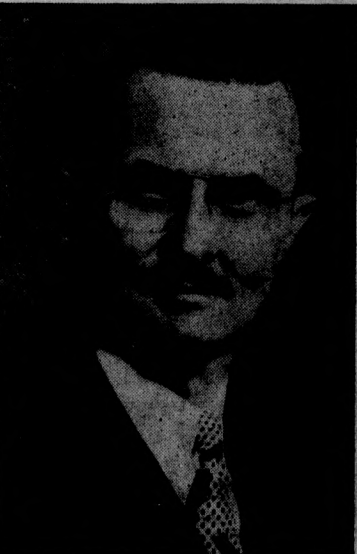

Following are comments of the merchants on parking:

Harry McLain, owner of Sierra Madre Linoleum: "I have heard people say that the merchandise here in town is the same grade and no more expensive (than elsewhere). But the parking is terrible in Sierra Madre. I don't think people from outside of town are going to be bothered with the parking."

One Job
Too Many

Al E. Morgan announced this week that he had resigned from the presidency of the Lions

Club, a post to which he was elected last week.

Too many other duties and too little time to give to each of them were the reasons for the resignation. Morgan, a vice-president of the Bank of Sierra Madre, is also president of the Chamber of Commerce and the chairman of the recreation commission. He is an active member of the Lions Club and has given much time to bond drives and other civic duties.

"In order to do a good job and have enough time for the jobs I already have, it is necessary for me to limit them a little and I just have to give up the Lions presidency," Morgan said.

Sterling Ripple, at present first vice-president will probably move up into the presidency, with all other officers moving up a notch, Lions officers said. This will be determined at tonight's meeting of the Lions at 7:30 p. m. at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Judge Mead
To LA Court

Phil S. Gibson, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and Chairman of the Judicial Council, has just appointed our much-travelled Judge Mead to a temporary seat on the Municipal Court bench in Los Angeles. He began his duties there July 1.

Judge Mead has been presiding judge in the El Monte Township Justice Court for the past nine months. During his term there he has kept clear a crowded docket on which both Temple City and San Dimas Sheriff's sub-station cases appear.

Enforcement officers from both sub-stations are generous in their praise of his cooperation with deputies in handling the cases brought before him.

Judge John C. Mead was appointed to the Sierra Madre City Court June 1, 1948. Chief of Police Gordon McMillan and all local police officers are also warm in their praise of Judge Mead's cooperation in handling all cases brought before him in Sierra Madre's court.

Death Ends Illness of Mrs. Griebenow

After a very lengthy illness, Mrs. Annie B. Griebenow passed away July 1 at a Pasadena hospital. A private memorial service was held Sunday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sara Jane Hansford of Laurel avenue. Dean Arnold Bode officiated.

Born June 8, 1883, in Buffalo, Wisconsin, Mrs. Griebenow had been a resident of Sierra Madre 27 years. For the last two years she lived in Laguna Beach.

Her life in Sierra Madre was an extremely active one. She was a P-TA past-president and was instrumental in starting the school cafeteria milk lunches here. It was through her efforts that the City Hall Art Gallery was started, and she was one of the organizers of the Sierra Madre Arts Guild.

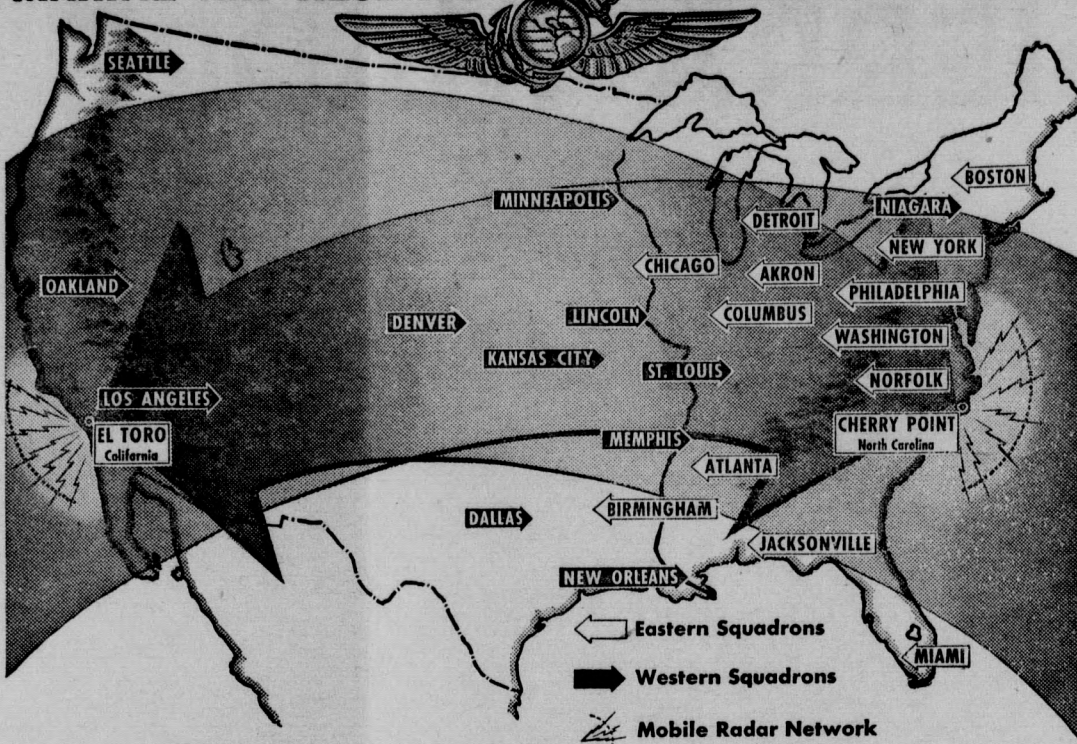

Mrs. Griebenow served as chairman of the Los Angeles County Democratic Central Committee for the 48th Assembly District. She was also a member of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, Royal Neighbors of America, United World Federalists and the Laguna Beach Art Association.

She is survived by her husband, Fred Griebenow; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Bode of Altadena and Mrs. Sara Jane Hansford of this city; a sister, Elizabeth M. Barker of St. Cloud, Minn., and two grandchildren, Lucy B. Bode of Altadena and Philip L. Hansford of Sierra Madre.

Committal was private at the Pasadena Mausoleum, conducted by Grant Chapel. Interment later in the family plot, Riverside cemetery at Owen, Wisconsin.

VFW Raiders Whip Hollywood Dodgers 12 to 4

Emirhanian Pitches Best Game of Season

With Emirhanian giving his best pitching of the year, the Sierra Madre VFW Raiders last Sunday beat the Hollywood Dodgers, 12 to 4.

This makes five wins, three of them in a row, out of nine games this season. Sunday's game proved that the local players are looking better and becoming a better balanced ball club. They made no errors Sunday and got 12 runs out of 12 hits.

The Raiders took an early lead, scoring twice in the first inning and again in the second. Eight runs came in during the fourth and another in the eighth. The Dodgers got one in the third, another in the sixth and two in the eighth out of 10 hits.

Emirhanian gave up four hits for one run in five innings, while Stueve gave up six for three runs in four. The losing pitcher was Feldstein who gave up eight for nine runs in less than four innings.

Schaefer of the Raiders hit the only home run of the day in the second inning. A Raider double play was credited to Shepherd-Kiggins-Evans.

Dick Lambert wrenched his knee in the eighth when he tripped rounding first base.

dre boulevard.

After a four-month drive for funds and help, the building was completed last February. The drive was actively conducted by the whole Nursery Association and other volunteers and got response from more than 600 Sierra Madreans with contributions of cash, labor and materials.

The building is used as a nursery school during the morning hours, five days a week, and is available for other group uses and organizations the rest of the time. The school is open to all pre-school children of the city and enrollment is on a two, three or five day schedule, with about 50 children attending daily.

Many of the materials used in the building were donated or given at cost by local firms and industries. Parents of nursery school children and friends of the school contributed, as well as cash, hours of labor and professional skill. Fathers of the children enrolled did most of the actual construction work on weekends under the supervision of a paid contractor.

The architect, Mac Cason, father of one of the pupils, donated his services. The building contains approximately 2050 square feet, and is of modern, open design. There are three spacious play yards, all surrounded by chain link fencing.

The Sierra Madre Nursery School Association has been a pioneer in the cooperative nursery school movement and has achieved national renown for its work. A text-book put out by the group is used in many schools and colleges and as an advisory authority by many other groups in nursery work. The school is entirely non-profit and self-supporting. Sierra Madre's Nursery School Association is the only cooperative nursery group known to have built its own quarters of this size and excellence.

Mrs. Marjorie Green has been director of the Nursery School since its organization in 1947. Two other professional teachers are hired by the group. Mrs. Alice Tyson and Mrs. Gay Betencourt, and mothers of children enrolled contribute time as assistant teachers and supervisors, after a period of training by Mrs. Green. Mrs. Green also plans parent education programs for all Sierra Madre parents, teachers and residents.

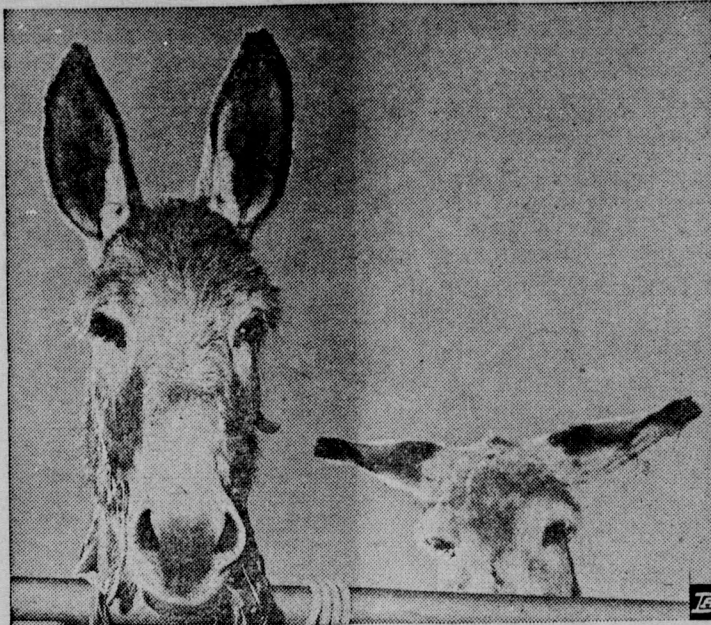

Honor guests at Sunday's program will be the three members of the school's advisory board: Dr. Helen Christianson of UCLA, Dr. Elizabeth Woods of the Los Angeles city schools system and Sierra Madre Schools Superintendent Charles Skutt. Other guests invited include present and past City Council members.

Mrs. George Barnett, chairman of the arrangements committee for the event, said that the open house and the program planned was intended as a large scale thank-you to all the members of the community who contributed to the building in any way and to all others who are interested.

The present Board of Directors for the Nursery School Association are: Harold Bartel, president; Mrs. J. P. O'Neill, vice-president; Ray Obazawa, treasurer; Mrs. Milton Valois, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Philip Saurenman, recording secretary; and Board Members G. G. Bauman, Mrs. George Barnett, Claude Brown, Kenneth Bush, Mrs. Francis Dane Jr., Norman Davidson, Mrs. Kermit Dowty, Mrs. Milton Goldberg, Dr. Nathan Jacobs, William Kinney, Miss Betty Newton, A. L. Pittenger, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, Mrs. Dixie Tiller, Mrs. Ervin Wright and Mrs. Edward Clinton Young.

CAMERA TOPICS

By T. T. Holden*

HUMOR PICTURES REQUIRE ALERT CAMERAMAN

Many interesting picture possibilities just cannot be posed. Animals and children are particularly difficult to fit into picture ideas because they just do not have the patience or understanding to be cooperative.

Unless you have unlimited patience and ingenuity, it is better to leave the humorous or cute picture situations up to chance. Then you must have your camera ready constantly, and be able to spring into action with it in time to capture the picture.

Most of us see wonderful picture opportunities all around us. But we often don't have our camera handy and it is just too much effort to go get it before the opportunity is lost. But why not keep the camera handy? Particularly around a home with children or pets, there are dozens of cute potential pictures every day, if you are alert to them.

For a week try keeping your camera ready for action in some handy spot around the house. If you have flash equipment, it will be even easier to shoot quickly when you see something develop that promises to make a good picture.

Keep the camera focused at six or eight feet, the handiest working distance indoors. Keep diaphragm and shutter set at the approximate exposure you will need, so you won't lose time. Then, you will be ready to catch any picture in a few seconds.

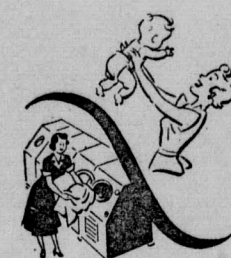

Once you have formed the habit of reaching for the camera instead of just wishing it were handy, you will be surprised and delighted with the number of grand shots you will add to your album.

HUNTINGTON OPENS LITERARY DISPLAY

As Huntington Library's contribution to the California Literary Centennial, an exhibit entitled "A Century of California Literature" was opened last week for the public.

Featuring 115 rare items of Californiana from the library vaults, the material displayed fills an entire hall of the Huntington Library building and is composed of the work of 26 California authors.

Manuscripts, first editions, photographs, and busts take up 19 cases while many of the items shown are matted and framed for wall pieces. The exhibit will remain in the Exhibit Hall until September 30.

'Metropole' at Playhouse

Pandemonium is peaceful compared to the somewhat more-than-turbulent footlight shenanigans which started on stage at Pasadena Playhouse Tuesday, last, in William Walden's wacky Broadway comedy "Metropole," a satire on a nationally famous humor magazine.

"Metropole," a mythical fun, fashion, fantasy magazine; is allegedly a take-off on the fabulous New Yorker and its editorial staff. Playwright Walden's hilarious opus takes the playgoer inside the editorial offices of the weekly humor sheet for a close-up of a tempestuous editor-in-chief and his running battle with a rival magazine and a few assorted ex-wives.

Paid subscriptions to the "Annals" may be left at the NEWS office, mailed to Mrs. Mabelle Barker, Secretary, 233 Ramona, or to Edna Hewitt, 630 Orange Drive. The book will cost $3.50 plus 11 cents tax. It will be a stiff cloth binding, illustrated, and will run approximately 260 pages. If the book is not published, all monies will be returned to the senders by Mrs. Barker, book treasurer for the Sierra Madre Historical Society.

Marine Air Reserve

Units Plan Coast-to-Coast Maneuvers

Marine Air Reserve Training Command units this summer will launch the largest coast-to-coast mass movements of fighter planes to war-game maneuvers ever planned for American reserve air squadrons in peacetime.

Forty-one Marine Air Reserve squadrons—30 fighter squadrons and all ground control intercept (radar) squadrons—based at 25 U. S. Naval stations throughout the nation will crisscross the country in two mass flights to rendezvous at coastal maneuver points in strength of four provisional air fighter groups in combat readiness.

Twenty-one western units will leave home stations simultaneously July 8 for maneuvers lasting until July 22 at Cherry Point, N. C. Twenty squadrons from bases east of the Mississippi will leave Aug. 5 for maneuvers lasting until Aug. 29 at El Toro (Santa Ana) Calif.

Predicts Cut
In Teen-Age
Auto Mishaps

Now that the California Legislature has made driver education in high schools mandatory, teen-age automobile accidents in the state should drop about 50 per cent.

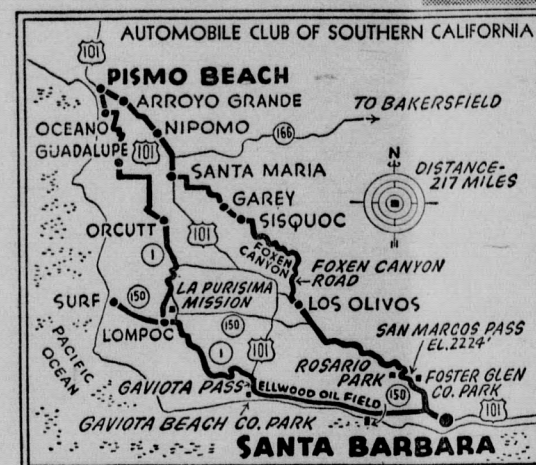

That was the prediction made by Dr. Amos E. Neyhart, head of the institute of public safety at the Pennsylvania State College, who recently addressed a driver education institute on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

"These kids of ours don't have to be killers," he said. "Findings of the American Automobile Association reveal that trained driver students had only half as many accidents over a three-year period as their untrained classmates.

He also pointed out that an Eastern insurance company has even established reduced rates for automobiles driven by teen-ages who have completed high school driving classes.

The week-long institute at U. C. L. A. was sponsored by University of California Extension in co-operation with the California State Department of Education, American Automobile Association, and the Automobile Club of Southern California.

College instructors who attended will now spread throughout the state to give driving courses to high school teachers. In turn, they will install courses in their schools this fall.

AUTO CLUB'S
TRIP OF THE WEEKClam Diggers
HavenBridal Shower Will Honor August Bride

Two miscellaneous family showers will be given this week for Nancy Irene Lorenzini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Lorenzini.

This evening Mrs. Lorenzini, mother of the bride-to-be, is entertaining a dozen members of her family. Sunday, Mrs. Jack Lloyd will have as shower guests members from the groom's family.

Miss Lorenzini will become the bride of Gerald Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Perry of 541 West Laurel, August 4, at the Congregational Church.

To any well-informed Californian, the word "Pismo" is synonymous with clams for Pismo Beach has long been known as the happy hunting grounds for clam digging in the State. Indeed, the Pismo clam is eagerly sought by those acquainted with its excellent flavor and this sort of recreation affords an exciting climax to motorists taking this week's diversified journey.

● Santa Barbara, with its predominant flavor of Spanish architecture, is one of California's most interesting cities. In a short stay here, one may visit such historically-important landmarks as the famed El Paseo de la Guerra, the County Courthouse, which resembles the palace of a Spanish sovereign, the renowned Covarrubias Adobe and Santa Barbara's venerable mission (lower photo)...

● Lompoc, said to be the world's largest commercial flower-seed growing center, glories in its colorful summer displays of larkspurs, poppies, marigolds, gladioli, nasturtiums, delphiniums, etc. ...

● Motorists interested in observing a colorful cosmopolitan town should stop at Guadalupe. This community has often been compared with Singapore and Panama because of its conglomerate mixture of inhabitants that include Japanese, Chinese, Filipinos, Mexicans, Swiss and American. Race and nationality mean nothing here ...

● Scenes like the one shown in top photo may be noted along the route between Oceano and Pismo Beach. The Pismo clam lives in the sand along the breaker line and generally the best catches are made when the tide is out. Hereabouts, the season for clam digging is year-around although hunters are urged to respect the State-regulated preserve areas. One caution: a fishing license is necessary. Those not wishing to dig for clams may purchase excellent clam dishes at several of the Pismo Beach restaurants ...

● In contrast with many older California cities that grew from Spanish pueblos, Santa Maria displays every mark of good city planning. The soil and climate here are particularly suited for the culture of flowers with the result that this city has become famous as a seed-producing center.

New Atomic
Bulletin Now Available

A description of just what happens when an atomic bomb explodes will soon be available to the public in an official Government document now being printed at the Government Printing Office. Entitled "The Effects of Atomic Weapons," the book will be released about August 1, and advance orders may now be placed with the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C., at $1.25 per copy. All proceeds from the sale go to the Government.

Of primary interest to persons engaged in civilian defense and the building trades, the book contains previously unpublished details on atomic explosion. The damage caused by the atomic bombs in Japan is examined with estimates of the probable effects on American cities. The types of buildings which best withstand the shock and the hazards of various radiations are described and illustrated.

The book was prepared by the Atomic Energy Commission from non-confidential scientific and technical information.

BUSINESS FACE-LIFTING

ing here." Rudolph Hartman, Hartman's Drug: "We are having our back lot surveyed, and we are going to use that for (customer) parking."

Sam Davis, Shell Service Station: "I have a lot and Al (Foxton, Chevron Service) has a lot. Why couldn't we take a block and park cars for you while people are shopping at your places?"

Lloyd Howard: "I think we should make an immediate survey of the parking problem to find out what it consists of. The one hour (proposed parking limit downtown) is made to get the merchants' cars off the street. In front of my store there is plenty of parking, there is never a problem."

Al Weatherbee, Club 60: "Plans can be formed to buy parking areas." He suggested a long range plan for getting parking at the rear of the stores and "with concerted effort that can be done. Our problems are not as bad as in other places."

T. W. Neals, insurance: "If you don't get your ground laid (for parking) now—five or ten years from now your parking problem will be very bad."

On Business District Face-Lifting:

Harold Pangborn, realtor: "I think we could stand a little face-lifting. The town does look a little rundown."

Oliver Arnold, Arnold's Hardware: "I think what we need is a cleanup in town. Don Jackson put in a new store, and it is certainly an asset in town. We can't all put in new stores, but I think we could dress up our windows. As a whole I think the town looks a little bit rough."

John Osgood, realtor: "I agree on this face-lifting program and a good parking area. I think that would do more toward bringing in local trade than anything else. (Customers) are used to going down and seeing all this new fancy stuff in other cities."

Cloyd Marshall, Marshall's Nursery: "A complete shopping center where customers could get everything they wanted would help."

Jessie Dunning, Dunning's Gift Shop: "As for face-lifting, we have many artists here who would be able to advise us as to color and architecture. They could be an advisory committee. I took a good look at the block my store is in and it looked like an old frontier town that was dying off. Some other color scheme could at least be made."

Those attending last Friday's meeting were: Harold Pangborn, Francis Danielson, Lloyd Howard, Henry Nelson, Noren Eaton, Al Weatherbee, Sam Davis, Thomas Neale, Theodore Keisel, Cloyd Marshall, Jack Moffett, Carl Scalzo, Oliver Arnold, Harry McLain, Jessie Dunning, John Osgood, Al Myers, Peter Ward, Rudolph Hartman, Ralph Welch, Oleta De Campo, Al Foxton, Jack Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown.

Sierra Madre 12th in Voting
